THE MASKED MAN

Every person around us seems to be masking their true intentions under a fake smile or false statements which they do not genuinely feel. This causes a lot of misunderstanding and unpleasantness. Certain people try to persuade or pressurize others to do what they would- given a choice not prefer to do. Being under influence they need to do certain things because they are a part of a group or society which cannot be totally composed of only ethically and morally clean human beings. The most dangerous is when certain conniving members manipulate the truth and tell different versions to various individuals according to their disposition or mind set and enjoy when others quarrel with each other based on the false comments intentionally planted in their minds.

Sadly enough the world is increasingly becoming a place where people carry their contorted sense of humour and poke fun at innocent, honest, warm hearted individuals who love to befriend all; ignorant of their evil designs. Ironically, these so called negative minded individuals do not live a peaceful life. Their own skill at deceiving others does not allow them to trust anyone and that is a very pitiable condition. It seems strange how we love to complicate the simple matters of our life. Simplicity is a gift, a talent and a much evolved way of life. The sages of the past lived simple lives because they knew the false illusions of a materialistic life. It is very difficult to be simple in a complicated world but once we master the power to control and detach ourselves from whatever or whoever is trying to implicate us in endless complications; life becomes peaceful. Yet, one has to go through the endless pain and suffering to realise the path to peace. The great masters are those who can stay calm and unperturbed in the midst of a turbulent life. They are the silent warriors of peace who have learned to penetrate beyond the mask of the masked man.
