

DOON UNIVERSITY

MID-TERM EXAMINATIONS, MARCH-2017, SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

M.Sc. INTEGRATED, ECONOMICS HONOURS, IIND SEMESTER,

ENGLISH LANGUAGE LITERATURE AND APPLICATIONS, SSG-571

Time-2hrs

MM-30

Section-A

(4x2=8)

Define the following terms:

1. Subjective Essay
2. Subject/Verb Agreement
3. Present Perfect Continuous Tense
4. Critical Appreciation

Section-B

(5x2=10)

5. Write a letter to the Registrar requesting him to provide twenty four hour security to all floors of the hostel, especially before the exams so that students who want to study are not influenced by peer pressure of students who want them to indulge in other activities.
6. In the play 'Chandalika', the protagonist, Prakriti, wants to break away from all the social and religious restrictions that do not respect her existence. Analyse the discriminating forces of the modern world which create social barriers which are false and humiliating and check the freedom and advancement of individuals.

Section-C

(6x2=12m)

7. Write the critical appreciation of either Rabindranath Tagore's play, Chandalika, or any movie or novel you might have read. It may be any play, story, novel, poem or movie.
8. Since literature is a reflection of life and society; write a poem or short story about your interpretation of life or society.